6. Authorisation to acquire and use treasury shares under revocation of the existing authorisation

The authorisation to acquire and use treasury shares resolved at the Annual General Meeting of June 18, 2008 will expire on December 17, 2009. The Company shall again be authorised to acquire and use treasury shares under revocation of the existing authorisation to acquire treasury shares. The Executive Board and the Supervisory Board propose to resolve as follows:

1. The Executive Board is authorised, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, to acquire until December 3, 2010 treasury shares of the Company up to an aggregate amount of 10 % of the current share capital or – if this value is lower – of the share capital existing at the time the present authorisation is exercised for any purpose permissible under the statutory restrictions and in accordance with the provisions set out below. The authorisation can be utilised by the Company or any of its Group companies or by third parties for its or their account.

Treasury shares may be purchased, at the discretion of the Executive Board, on the stock exchange or by way of a public purchase offer made to all shareholders or by way of a public invitation to all shareholders to submit offers for sale.

In the event of a direct acquisition through the stock exchange, the consideration paid per share by the Company (excluding incidental acquisition costs) must not exceed or fall below the average closing price of the Company's shares in the Xetra trading system (or a comparable successor system) on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange during the last three trading days prior to the date of the obligation to acquire the treasury shares by more than 5 %.

In the event of a public purchase offer, the consideration paid per share by the Company (excluding incidental acquisition costs) must not exceed or fall below the average closing price of the Company's shares in the Xetra trading system (or a comparable successor system) on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange between the sixth and the third trading day prior to the publication of the purchase offer by more than 15 %.

In the event of an invitation to all shareholders to submit offers for sale, the consideration paid per share by the Company (excluding incidental acquisition costs) must not exceed or fall below the average closing price of the Company's shares in the Xetra trading system (or a comparable successor system) on the Frankfurt Stock Exchange during the last three trading days prior to the publication of the invitation to all shareholders to submit offers for sale by more than 15 %.

If after the publication of a public purchase offer or an invitation to all shareholders to submit offers for sale, respectively, the relevant price is subject to significant changes, the public purchase offer or the invitation to all shareholders to submit offers for sale may be adjusted. In this case the starting point for the determination of the relevant periods during which in turn the aforementioned relevant average closing prices of the Company's shares are calculated is neither the day of the publication of the public purchase offer nor the day of the publication of the invitation to all shareholders to submit offers for sale, but the day of the adjustment. The public purchase offer or the invitation to all shareholders to submit offers for sale, respectively, may provide for further conditions.

If a public purchase offer or a public invitation to submit offers for sale is oversubscribed, acceptance must be in proportion to each shareholder's current shareholding. The terms of such public purchase offer or public invitation may provide for priority acceptance of small amounts (up to 100) of own shares per shareholder and for rounding in accordance with commercial rounding principles.

2. The Executive Board is authorised to use the treasury shares acquired on the basis of this authorisation as follows:
 - a) These shares may, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, be sold on the stock exchange or by way of an offer made to all shareholders.
 - b) They may also be sold, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, in another manner provided that the shares are sold in return for cash and at a price that is not substantially lower than the stock exchange price of the Company's shares of the same class at the time of disposal. The time of disposal shall be deemed to be the time at which the obligation to transfer title in the shares is assumed, even if still conditional, or the time of the transfer in title itself if no separate obligation precedes or if such time is designated as relevant in the agreement containing the obligation to transfer. The final sales price for the treasury shares shall be determined according to these requirements at a time shortly before the sale of the treasury shares. The total pro rata amount of the share capital attributable to the number of shares sold under this authorisation, together with the pro rata amount of the share capital attributable to shares or option or conversion rights which are issued under exclusion of subscription rights in direct or corresponding application of Section 186 (3) sentence 4 of the German Stock Corporation Act during the term of this authorisation, may not, in the aggregate, exceed 10 % of the Company's share capital existing at the time the Annual General Meeting resolves to adopt this authorisation or – if this value is lower – of the Company's share capital existing at the time the present authorisation is exercised.

- c) They may, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, be offered and transferred to third parties for the purpose of directly or indirectly acquiring companies, parts of companies or participations in companies as well as in the context of corporate mergers.
 - d) They may also, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, be redeemed without the redemption or its implementation requiring a further resolution of the General Meeting.
3. Shareholders' subscription rights to treasury shares are excluded to the extent these shares are used in accordance with the preceding authorisations specified in no. 2) lit. b) and c).
 4. The authorisations to acquire, sell or redeem treasury shares may be exercised independently in whole or in part on one or several occasions.
 5. The currently existing authorisation to acquire treasury shares granted by the Annual General Meeting on June 18, 2008 and expiring on December 17, 2009 shall be revoked as from the time the new authorisation takes effect; the authorisation granted in the aforesaid resolution of the Annual General Meeting of June 18, 2008 for the use of treasury shares acquired on the basis of such resolution shall remain in effect.

Report by the Executive Board to the Annual General Meeting on agenda item 6 regarding the exclusion of subscription rights upon use of treasury shares

Under item 6 of the agenda the Executive Board and the Supervisory Board propose to authorise the Company until December 3, 2010 pursuant to Section 71 (1) no. 8 of the German Stock Corporation Act and in accordance with the common business practice to acquire treasury shares up to an aggregate amount of 10 % of the current share capital or – if this value is lower – of the share capital existing at the time the present authorisation is exercised. The Annual General Meeting of June 18, 2008 had already authorised the Executive Board to acquire treasury shares of the Company up to a pro-rata amount of 10 % of the share capital. Until today, this authorisation has not been used. As the current authorisation due to the approval of the Annual General Meeting dated June 18, 2008, is valid only until December 17, 2009, a new authorisation shall be granted in this Annual General Meeting under revocation of the current authorisation.

When acquiring treasury shares, the principle of equal treatment under Section 53a of the German Stock Corporation Act is to be observed. The proposed acquisition of shares through the stock exchange by way of a public purchase offer or by a public invitation made to all shareholders to submit offers for sale, is in line with this principle. If a public purchase offer or a public invitation to submit offers for sale is oversubscribed, acceptance must be in proportion to each shareholder's current shareholding. The terms of such public purchase offer or public invitation may provide for priority acceptance of small amounts (up to 100) of own shares per shareholder and for rounding in accordance with commercial rounding principles. These options serve to avoid fractions when fixing the acceptance quotas and to avoid smaller residual quantities and, by doing so, to facilitate the technical processing.

Pursuant to the proposed authorisation, treasury shares acquired by the Company may either be redeemed or be resold by way of a public offer to all shareholders or via the stock exchange. With the last two options the principle of equal treatment of the shareholders is observed also in the event of disposal of the shares. In the event of a redemption no further resolution of the General Meeting for the redemption or its implementation is required.

The proposed authorisation further provides in accordance with the provisions of Section 71 (1) no. 8 sentence 5 of the German Stock Corporation Act that the Executive Board, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, may sell the treasury shares also in another manner than through the stock exchange or through an offer made to all shareholders provided that these shares are sold in accordance with Section 186 (3) sentence 4 of the German Stock Corporation Act in return for cash and at a price that is not substantially lower than the stock exchange price of the Company's shares of the same class at the time of disposal. The time of disposal shall be deemed to be the time at which the obligation to transfer title in the shares is assumed, even if still conditional, or the time of the transfer in title itself if no separate obligation precedes or if such time is designated as relevant in the agreement containing the obligation to transfer. The final sales price for the treasury shares shall be determined according to these requirements at a time shortly before the sale of the treasury shares.

The option of a sale in a manner other than through the stock exchange or an offer to all shareholders is in the interest of the Company and the shareholders, since additional domestic and foreign shareholders can be gained from such sale to institutional investors, for example. The Company will further be enabled to adjust its equity capital to the current business requirements and react quickly and flexibly to favourable stock market conditions. The economic as well as the voting right interests of the shareholders are preserved. The shareholders will not suffer any disadvantages as a result of the small volume, since the shares sold under the exclusion of the shareholders' subscription rights may be sold only at a price which is not substantially lower than the stock exchange price of the Company's shares of the same class at the time of disposal. When exercising the authorisation, any issuance of shares and/or issuance of option or conversion rights is to be taken into consideration if and to the extent such issuance is made under the exclusion of subscription rights in accordance with Section 186 (3) sentence 4 of the German Stock Corporation Act during the term of the authorisation. Interested shareholders can therefore acquire any shares necessary to maintain their participation quota through the stock exchange at virtually the same conditions.

Furthermore, the Company shall also have the possibility to offer treasury shares as consideration in connection with any merger and any (direct or indirect) acquisition of companies, parts of companies or participations in companies. Thereby the Company is put in the position to utilise the treasury shares as acquisition currency as is often demanded by national and international competition. As in the past, the Executive Board continuously examines opportunities for the Company to acquire companies or participations in companies. The acquisition of such participations or companies in consideration for shares is in the Company's interest if the acquisition leads to a strengthening or reinforcement of the market position of the VTG Group or enables or facilitates market entry into new fields of business. In order to timely and flexibly meet the interest of the seller or the Company to receive or offer payment in the form of Company shares in the event of a successful conclusion of such agreements, it is necessary, in case no authorised capital shall be used for such purpose, that the Executive Board is authorised to grant, with the consent of the Supervisory Board, treasury shares under the exclusion of the subscription rights of the shareholders. The interests of shareholders are, on the one hand, protected by the limitation of the volume to 10 %, which excludes any further reaching losses in the proportions of their shareholdings. On the other hand, in determining the valuation ratios, the Executive Board will use the the stock market price of the Company's shares as guidance. However, it is not planned to establish a schematic link with the stock market price of the Company's shares, in particular in order to avoid that negotiation results already achieved be jeopardized by fluctuations in the stock market price. In light of the preceding considerations, the proposed disposal of treasury shares can be considered, according to the Executive Board, to be in the interests of the Company and the shareholders and may justify the exclusion of shareholders' subscription rights in individual cases. The Executive Board and the Supervisory Board will in each individual case examine and consider whether the merger or the acquisition in consideration for treasury shares under exclusion of subscription rights is in the interest of the Company.

The authorisations to acquire, use or redeem treasury shares may be exercised independently in whole or in part on one or several occasions.

The proposal for approval provides that the currently existing authorisation to acquire treasury shares granted by the Annual General Meeting on June 18, 2008 and expiring on December 17, 2009 shall be revoked as from the time the new authorisation takes effect; only the existing authorisation granted in the resolution of the Annual General Meeting of June 18, 2008 for the use of treasury shares acquired on the basis of such resolution shall remain in effect.
